As an avid reader of all three of these great author's, I couldn't have been more excited when I saw this book. The introduction from Manly p. Hall is exceptional and well worth reading for any Theosophist or Rosicrucian student. Max Heindel's exposition on The Secret Doctrine is profound and insightful, but far too short considering the great work Madam Blavatsky put forth. This is an easy read and worthwhile for anyone who has ever tried to read The Secret Doctrine.
