About the Author

Laura's Version I read ... I draw ... I write ... I write some more ... I work ... I play ... I color ... I make dinner and feed my kid ... I love my husband and my Abby ... I adore my house ... I enjoy my job ... I play a mean game of Super Mario Bros. ... my iPod is almost full and my gas tank is often on empty ... I would rather sleep in a camper in the woods than spend a night in a fancy hotel ... I've swam in the South Pacific Ocean ... I've seen lava flows and flooded cities ... I have fallen through holes in caves and climbed mountains where the air was so thin it was hard to breathe ... I have accidently walked in on a boy in the bathroom ... I understand how the Dewey Decimal System works ... I believe in all sorts of crazy things except my ability to speak in front of crowds ... I wish everyday that "The X-Files" was still on TV but am very glad to have found "Doctor Who" ... I wonder often if aliens and/or God is watching me during the day and laughing hysterically ... I have watched Dave lose his hair ... I have accidently driven through bean fields ... I make my own strawberry jam ... I have been to entirely too many funerals in my life ... I am 5 feet tall ... my daughter once believed my middle name was pronounced 'Murray' instead of 'Marie' and I love it ... I am Laura and this is my life :) Dave's Version What she said ... except I haven't lost my hair. I know where every strand(t) has gone.
