Green Lantern Loses It!

By W. Ingram

This is another prime example of DC throwing their heroes in the ring. Putting their core characters through some intense life-changing events. While this storyline was going down, DC Comics was leading another campaign and asked the fans to vote on how it would end. The buzz over this was in newspapers all across the U.S. just like Knightfall and Death Of Superman. It was great that DC was listening to its readers. Coast City is destroyed by the evil Cyborg Superman and GL tries to recreate it. He does this with grizzly means. In the process he kills several members of the GL Corps and even a sacred guardian and steals all the rings of power. He just goes freakin' insane and becomes an ego-centric power hungry monster. These issues lead into Zero Hour which in my opinion was a badly written "Crisis" type story. But this GL storyline was really good. For the first time we get to see the dark side of Green Lantern's power and what can happen. GL becomes Parallax and eventually GL is defeated and dies or so it seems. Hal is replaced with Kyle Rayner as the new GL. As for other stories of DC heroes getting their lives destroyed, check out Batman: Knightfall, Death Of Superman and Crisis On Infinite Earths, the daddy of all DC Comics destruction. Like I said in other reviews, this was a weird decade in comics (1989-1999) but it was great for the fans!
