“I am carnal, sold under sin,” and yet the eclipsing power of divine grace through Jesus Christ is the glorious victory given to the saints of the Most High (Rom. 7:14; 1 Cor. 15:57). Grace overpowers sin in the lives of all who are truly and fully submitted to Christ (Rom. 6:14; James 4:7). Every human life that does not possess the eclipsing power and grace of Jesus Christ, is dominated by sin. This resurrection grace procures to us that victory as we experience what Paul termed as “Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus.” (2 Cor. 4:10) When we are “Always (perpetually) bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus,” His blessed divine life will always or perpetually be manifesting in our mortal bodies as death is working in us and life through us to others (2 Cor. 4:10-12). Any person who is walking in and led by the Holy Spirit of God is dying downward and being simultaneously lifted upward by the resurrecting power of the Most High. He is therefore fruitful and blessed, and his leaf shall not wither but be ever fruitful to God’s glory (Ps. 1:3).

I Die Daily: Presenting our Bodies a Living Sacrifice

By Carol Burke

This book and Raised Up have so profoundly assisted me in learning the daily cross Jesus told us to take up. And, as a result I am experiencing the resurrection power of the Most High daily as never before! This book has truly shined light on this foundational and essential Bible truth as none other I have ever read!

“Let go and let God” comes down to is this: We need to let go of our own will. We must claim as our own the incredibly hard prayer that Jesus prayed: “Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but Yours be done” (Luke 22:42). We need to let go and let God do what God wills. This submission will lead to peace and joy, even when the way is difficult. “Father, I place my life in Your hands!” (Luke 23:46).” Carol Burke

By Dar

This was a precious gift to me. When I started reading 'I Die Daily' it was very difficult to put this book down! I refer to 'I Die Daily' often as it is full of Scripture and truth. Brother Todd knows how to share wisdom and knowledge through his writings and the meaning of the Scripture. He is bold in telling the truth and sharing Yeshua's Word--which we don't see much of that today in the world of Christianity. A wonderful reference to add to your library. -Dar
