Review

This classic tale of enchantment, which has captivated children now for 50 years, is produced in large format, abridged and beautifully illustrated to appeal to a slightly younger audience. The adventures of Peter, Susan, Edmund and Lucy in the wintry land through the wardrobe are brought vividly to life in the pictures. The book is packaged with a tape of the story expertly read by Nickolas Grace, with specially composed music. (7-9 yrs) (Kirkus UK) --Kirkus UK

About the Author

Christian Birmingham graduated in illustration from Exeter College of Art and Design in 1991, and is one of the most talented artists of his generation. His first picture book, The Magical Bicycle by Berlie Doherty was shortlisted for the Kurt Maschler Award.

LLW teacher's guide

By Kathleen M. Fato

It included good ideas and information for lower grades in particular. I would have liked some more higher level skill ideas included.
