THE ROYALS OF MONTERRA: FORGOTTEN PRINCESS (KINDLE WORLDS NOVELLA) BY M. R. PRITCHARD PDF

Aria would have been a princess if her family hadn't lost the monarchy. Since the House of Savoy was forced to flee she's been roaming Europe with a band of gypsies, only stopping to spend cold winters behind the safe walls of Monterra. Aria has embraced the nomadic life, discovered freedom in travel; she's finally found her niche in the world. Until Prince Dominic crosses her path. The handsome prince encompasses everything Aria lost, everything she's been hiding from. She knows better than to get involved, princes don't date gypsy girls with secrets like hers.

When Prince Dominic finally makes his move, will Aria leave her insecurities in the past or will she run with the gypsies?

An amazing add on to The Royals of Monterra books

By Brooke Evans

First off, the description provided from Amazon automatically grabbed my attention. I went into reading the book with the feeling that I was going to get emotionally attached to Aria and boy, was I correct. The first paragraph alone left me wanting to keep reading to find out what happens.

The first chapter starts with an ideal scenario and most people who read books like this know that something is going to go wrong very soon. In the next chapter, the point of view shifts to Dominic's the heir of the throne.

I love how we got to see the playful and young version of the stoic king and queen in Royal Date because we never focused on their back story. I just loved how slow paced and relaxed the book felt because there wasn't any real plot, and I love reading books like that.

The cover art of the book is very simple. I am not usually one who decided whether or not to read a book based on a cover but this cover definitely captured my attention and drew me in. (I was going to read the book anyway and the cover was just a nice bonus).

Liked finding more about Aria

By Rhonda

This is how Aria and Prince Dominic meet. Aria has lots of family secrets and feels guilty because she has been hiding since she was little. She likes the travel as gypsies, loves skiing, planting flowers.

Short read would of have liked it more if longer and deeper but as everything for the novella to work. clean read
